Hari Om to All SCGCS Members

March 2015

We hope all of our members are doing well and are in good health. We had very successful programs in 2014 and looking forward to planning the 2015 events. We are getting a late start this year due to various travel and business issues with Trustee Boards.

For the 2015 SCGCS camping at El Capitan Beach, seven people logged in at 8AM to reserve the group sites. Unfortunately we were not successful. We are researching other options that can accommodate 100 to 150 people, if you know of a group camping site that can accommodate this # of people please inform the one of the Trustee board and we will research it.

Holi celebration at Huntington Beach was very successful, you can follow SCGCS on Facebook for updates and photos of event. Since we are getting a late start we will combine the General Body meeting and Ramnavmi program to one day. The General Body meeting will be from 3:30PM to 4:30PM so the Trustee Board will be available to answer any questions that SCGCS members may have in regards to our society. Below are the programs for 2015, please note that the Picnic date has been selected but we are trying to reserve the picnic area so please check SCGCS.ORG for update in June 2015.

We are hoping once again that we will see greater participation from our members.

Regards,

Haribhai Desai
 President, 2015
