Hari Om to All SCGCS Members

I hope all of our SCGCS members are doing great and are ready for the last two events for the year 2015.

The next two events are the Navratri Program and Diwali Dinner. We will have Navratri celebration on two nights and we ask our members to spread the word. SCGCS's Navratri program is tailored towards family and we truly hope that everyone takes advantage of the great atmosphere. For all SCGCS members this event is free of charge additional details can be found on page 2. Those that want to do Aarti please see one of the trustee boards when you arrive. We look forward to all of the members attending and filling up the gymnasium.

Due to School District policy we are unable to serve cooked Prasad or snacks. So for Prasad, we request/encourage our members to bring dry Prasad or fruits. Also SCGCS will provide Aarti, so please don't bring Aarti from home. Please help us adhere to this policy.

The next celebration is the Diwali/New Year program. This time around we have booked the Amaya restaurant in Buena Park and have lined up a talented musical group to make this a very enjoyable evening. Capacity is limited so please purchase your ticket in advance and join us to celebrate the New Year with family and friends. Additional information is on page 2 of the flyer.

Lastly if you would like to be part of SCGCS board of trustees for the year 2016, please go to SCGCS.ORG to download the form or complete the form in the flyer and mail it.

Regards,

Haribhai Desai
President, 2015
